—WANTED—A partner, either active or silent, to invest in $500 to $1,000 in a legitimate, profitable business, no competition, in Carson City. address, Mercantile, Carson Postoffice. July 25th

Siddons, the watchmaker and jeweler, has opened a shop opposite the Opera House, where he is prepared to attend to all work in his line as formerly. Watches, clocks, jewelry etc. repaired and warranted.

George McLoughlin is the sole agent in Carson for the "New Domestic" sewing machine. A machine which is now at the acknowledged head of the long line of machines offered the public. Perfect in action, noiseless and lasting.

WANTED—A situation in a private family, to do general housework. Apply at this office. may 29th

WANTED—A situation as a clerk, by a colored man who understands his business. Apply at this office. may 29th

ALL SORTS.

—The country is overrun with doves.

—Cap. Avery will have his regular ox barbecue on Saturday.

—WANTED—A girl to do general housework. Apply at this office.

—Governor Adams has given $20 toward the Virginia City celebration.

—The picnic at Steamboat next Sunday promises to be a delightful affair.

—The new building at the Orphan's Home will be finished in about two weeks.

—Mrs. Jennie Banning, (colored) wants a situation in a private family. Apply at this office.

—Mr. John Schmitt has returned with his bride and the two are receiving the usual congratulations.

—Since the new Board came into office Chinatown has become quite a sweet smelling place—for Chinatown.

Little Harry Zehner was severely injured last Saturday by falling from a load of hay at Kaiser & Elrod's yard.

—The new sign in front of Stewart's new office indicates that he has gone into partnership with J. D. Torreyson.

—There is a man in the city with a new $13 washing machine destined to do more toward clearing out Chinese laundries than all other influences combined.

—Al. Livingston has just returned from below and says that he learned more of the politics of this State down at Orndoff's saloon than he ever dreamed of up here.

—A Frenchman employed at Brule's Hotel skipped out with $30 on Sunday. Brule is on his track and hunting him in the extensive pine forests in the neighborhood of Glenbrook.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla operates radically upon and through the blood, and is a safe, reliable, and absolute cure for the various diseases, complaints and disorders, due to debility, or any constitutional taint or infection.

—Why families should buy none but Cohn's butter:
It is made by white labor.
You can always get it fresh.
It is full weight.
Each roll stamped. COHN.
Ask your grocer for it and take no other.

—Dempsey is out with a challenge to Burke, Mitchell and McCaffery, and backs it with $5000. He desires them to put up or shut up at once. It seems strange that Mitchell should have prepared a match with Sullivan when Dempsey laid out $5000 so temptingly before him.

—Avoid by all means the use of calomel for bilious complaints. Ayer's Cathartic Pills compounded entirely of vegetable ingredients, have been tested for forty years, and are acknowledged to be the best remedy ever devised for torpidity of the liver, costiveness, and all derangements of the digestive apparatus.

Astonished Indians.

Yesterday the express train came in on time, and came near running over a group of Piute Indians playing poker on the track. The bucks feel quite annoyed, and say that if the Railroad Company was going to run a train on time it ought at least to have given the tribe some sort of notification.

Decorate

Hon J. H. Kinkead Chairman of the General Committee of arrangements for celebrating the Fourth of July, requests that the citizens of Carson, particularly those on the line of the parade, will decorate their places of business and private residences.

THE DIAMOND DRILL.

No Chance for Outsiders to Make a Cent.

Not a single outsider has ever made a single dollar on Comstock securities since the introduction of the diamond drill in Comstock mining.

In the good old days of quick deals and convulsions of the stock market a small blast often uncovered the edge of a bonanza, the truth passed like a flash of powder along the street, and the ball of speculation went rolling on. Here was the chance for the small investor and a man with $100 would sometimes start on a tack that landed him in the $100,000 hole. Then the public was ready to speculate, money was plenty, real estate active and trade good. But the diamond drill changed all these conditions and when it became a feature in mining, the last hope for a poor man to make money in stocks was gone forever. The drill can be sent ahead several hundred feet and the public is told that it is prospecting for water; this is only a blind, it is prospecting for ore. The drill is locked in such a way that the core is never seen or handled by the miner who works. It is taken to an assayer who does not know where it comes from and the secret of the drill is only known to the merciless gang of insiders who bilk the public. When the ore body is found, bored through and accurately measured it is left to be out of sight until the insiders want to make a deal and fool people in paying more assessments and then it is uncovered. The ore all goes to the mills, owned by the insiders. The insiders make all the money on the deals and having the advantage of knowing to a dead certainty what is going to happen about a year before the public, the latter simply shoulders the expense pays the assessments and lives in hope.

The Sterling Mine Case.

Mr. Clement Bennett, the official stenographer of San Francisco, arrived from Independence last evening, where he has been taking testimony for the last fortnight, as special examiner for the U. S. Circuit Court in the case of the Southern Development Co. of Nevada, vs. Frank Silva. The complainant's testimony was taken before Mr. Bennett in Carson on the 7th of this month, and lasted a week. The respondent's testimony has been taken in Inyo county. The suit is brought to recover $10,000 which was paid for the purchase of the Sterling Mine in Inyo county. After the money was paid the mine was found to have been drilled, and the Company claim that Silva knew it was none the less.

Silva, however, had left part of the money, $7,500, in Wells Fargo's care, and that amount was attached and now lies in the hands of the Clerk of the Circuit Court awaiting the decision of the Court.

P. Reddy appeared for the Southern Development Company, and R. M. Minor represented the Respondent. Mr. Bennett now submits the testimony he has taken to Judge Sawyer, who after argument by the respective Counsel, will decide the case.

The County Advertising.

The contract to do the official advertising for the county was awarded yesterday.

Last year the work was given to the APPEAL, and the rate fixed by the County Commissioners at $200. Recently the Grand Jury recommended that the work be subjected to competitive bidding. The bids were as follows:

Index, $457; Tribune, $443; APPEAL, $400.

The Index was represented by Wells Drury, who had recently leased the paper.

The Free Lance put in a bid for $150, but as the law expressly provides that the advertising shall be done in a daily paper if there is one in the county, the Commissioners were unable to consider the bid.

Special Notice

All committees are earnestly requested to report in full to the Finance Committee at the meeting to be held this evening at 8 P. M. at the office of the Secretary of State.

J. H. KINKEAD,
Chairman Fourth of July Com.

—The Reno brigade refuse to come up here because it has had some sort of a row with its band.

A Quieting Announcement.

During the past few days the editor of the APPEAL has received several communications inquiring if he expects to ride the yellow cayuse in the 4th of July procession, straddled by him in a previous parade. Although we think a great deal of the animal in question he has decided to yield to the popular clamor for a change of horses, and will bestride a sorrel mare whose high stepping qualities and graceful outlines will lend a completeness to the parade never before observed in this city. Still we confess to a dislike to shelve this faithful old sway-backed horse whose honest neigh has so often greeted us and whose long stride was a thing to be depended on, and all to make way for gaudy display and a cavorting disposition.

Then again the age of the yellow steed we love so well entitles it to respect.

In the early struggles of the colonies this steed belonged to one of G. Washington's body servants and was present at the battle of the Brandywine. It was quite an old horse then. We did not know these historic facts at the time of purchase, but bought it on the solemn assurance that it was seven years old. Which by the way reminds us. Why do horsemen always sell their horses just when they are seven years old?

Picotte in more Trouble.

T. E. Picotte, who several years ago published the Lyon County Times, this State, is now running a paper in Hailey, Idaho, known as the Times. It appears the citizens of that town are getting up a 4th of July celebration, and Picotte did not favor the appointment of Hon. Phil Regan as Marshal on the occasion, and after publishing the doings of the Committee of Arrangements, he last Saturday fired this squib at Mr. Regan: "Moved that the Grand Marshal be declared to be Jesus Christ." Mr. Regan demanded of Picotte the next day an explanation, and then slapped him in the face. Just then he rushed an outsider, but not quite quick enough to stop Picotte from firing a shot into Mr. Regan's groin, from his little pistol, which was apparently in his hand for an assassin's work. At last accounts no arrests had been made.

O'Donovan Rossa's Way.

NEW YORK, June 27.—A mass meeting was held in Clarendon Hall, last night, under the direction of the Manhattan Circle of Fenian Brotherhood. O'Donovan Rossa was present and said: "I hope that constitutional legislation for Ireland will succeed, but I fear it won't. England herself might never submit to it. I know Gladstone is sincere in his professions. If Irishmen want Ireland to be free they must fight. Every Englishman who goes into Ireland for the purpose of governing should be slain. One thousand Irishmen can be got any day to go into the heart of London and lay that city in ashes."

A Queer Picture.

Laycock the Reno artist has painted a picture called "Crossing the River." It represents U. S. Grant just stepping out of a boat and being greeted by Garfield, Lincoln, Washington etc., on the Heavenly shore. The group of departed great men are all in swallow tail coats, surrounded by angels in white wings, and waving palms.

Doubtless the artist intended to pay a tribute to the dead but in so doing he put together an incongruous mixture of commonplace with the ideal. Angels with white wings do not go with men in black dress coats.

An Unfailing Remedy.

Brandreth's Pills cure dyspepsia, or indigestion, headache, pain in the shoulders, coughs, tightness of the chest, dizziness, sour stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, inflammation of the lungs. Pain in the region of the kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of dyspepsia. One or two Pills every night for a week are sufficient.

The Candalaria Case.

In the final settlement of the Sutherland case a transfer of all the properties of Ellis and Doran are made to Sutherland and all claims are cancelled all round. The exact terms of the compromise are not known but the general idea is that Ellis and Doran came out of the suit, as the boys say, "well heeled."

De Ladies and Men.

As city merchants we not only offer to out of town customers important advantages in prices, but goods and styles fresh and new from the leading markets of Europe and America.

We send CATALOGUES and SAMPLES FREE, and spare no pains to thoroughly suit those who entrust their orders to us. All goods are selected from our general stock, and are the same in style and price as those for city trade.

Thousands of customers all over the coast attest the skill, taste, discretion and care displayed in this branch of our work, as well as the great benefit and satisfaction thereby derived.

Those who have never ordered goods from us by mail should give this system a test. It will pay.
